- No Contracts Required
Riipen handles all wage subsidy and payment logistics so employers can focus on their projects.

Simple, Straightforward Eligibility

Most Canadian employers are already eligible to participate in Level UP.

You must meet all of the following:

- Be a registered Canadian small business or non-profit organization; and
- have a business challenge in mind that will be converted into an 80-hour project with defined scope of work; and
- don't need prior experience working with students, but must have capacity to spend time with the students - educating them on business challenges or opportunities and answering questions to complete the project.
